- Local Tips 260 m
- > Yoshimi Soba: Just around the corner, nice family, great for lunch or dinner. Solid soba and tempura standards.
  - > Jissaku: Fun little dinner spot run by a local family, try the potato mochi pancake, nice selection of other dishes.
  - > Atarashiya: Great for lunch or early dinner. Try the yakitori bowl!
  - > Shichirohei: Good coffee and breakfast (from 7:30am) or a light meal, glass of wine. Bring a book and chill out.
  - > Juntos: Mexican food in Japan? Yep, Pablo and Tia have some muchos bueno burritos, try the Mexican street corn, or just swing by for a margarita or Tecate.
  - > Libushi: Great local hand crafted beer from Tom & Shingo.
  - > Tanuki Thai & Bar: Had enough Japanese food? How about some yummy Thai, head downstairs to the stylish bar for a night cap and some live music.
  - > The Craft Room: Best coffee in town (possible bias here) and best selection of craft beer in town (hands down), just in front of Nagasaka Gondola, the apres spot after a big pow day!
  - > Base Camp Bar: Fireside bar at The Schneider Hotel and the best wings in town. Relax for some pizza or wings or stay for dinner. Breakfast walk-ins also welcome. Yoji guests can store skis here if they rent at the hotel shop.
  - > Genki Burger: Need a quick bite? Get Genki!
